BODRUM'S BACKGROUND

Milas-Bodrum International Airport (BJV) serves to Bodrum and its vicinity, which is one of the most popular tourism destinations in Turkey. Bodrum welcomes many foreign visitors especially from countries like UK, Netherlands, France, Belgium, Poland, Russia, Ukraine and Germany.

Due to its close location to the city center and the bays nearby, BJV is a preferred airport for vacationers. The airport has been serving commercial flights since 1997 and has become a major gateway to the region since then.

Operator of 15 airports worldwide, TAV Airports assists the airlines and tour operators to grow their business in BJV, through its regional experience and know-how.

BODRUM OFFERS A PERFECT MIX

The town of Bodrum and its bays nearby offer a great destination in the Mediterranean with a year-long sunshine, luxurious holiday resorts, traditional boutique concept hotels, beaches, marinas, local culture and astounding hospitality. The Bodrum Peninsula and surrounding area currently have 66 Blue Flag beaches.

Apart from the gorgeous beaches, Bodrum also offers plenty of fish restaurants, historical places and a lively nightlife. Bodrum also became a significant destination for its moisture-free and refreshing windy air which makes sailing a very popular activity around the whole peninsula.

BJV HAS A CONVENIENT LOCATION

Milas-Bodrum International Airport (BJV) is the most convenient point of entry into Bodrum for the vacationers. BJV has convenient access to the touristic bays and villages nearby that makes travel to neighbour destinations in Bodrum area possible within one driving hour.

Marmaris and Didim, which are very popular tourist destinations among European people are also accessible from BJV with a short drive.
